Brian has been described as “a musician’s musician” by Downbeat, “a composer’s composer” by the Hollywood Reporter, and “one of the most talented producers of a generation” by the editor of Billboard magazine. His music has been critically hailed as “indelible and breathtaking” by the Los Angeles Times, “piercingly beautiful” by the New York Times, and “masterful” by Newsweek.

With a career spanning over 50 years as a recording artist, performer, Grammy winning producer (for over 150 albums, 37 being Billboard top ten charting in their categories), a multiple award winning composer of film and television shows garnering two Academy Awards, six Oscars nominations, nine Peabody awards, and over 75 Emmy awards (18 of which won Emmys for Best documentary or series), Keane has received 20 Emmy nominations for his music. He is a four time Emmy Award winner, the recipient of the New York Festivals TV & Film Grand Award, among many other composing honors, was inducted into the New England Music Hall of Fame in 2021, and is the only composer in history to have ever swept all of the Emmy nominations for music in a single year.
